EMECS 7 TECHNICAL SESSION 2

May, Tuesday 09th 14h30 to 17h30

1 Consideration of Freshwater ecosystems in locating marine reserves: emphasis on enclosed and semi-enclosed seas

Khanmohammadi M.

2 Water Quality Control in the Seto Inland Sea

Koyama Takenobu

3 Has area-wide total pollutant load control in Osaka Bay succeeded in recovery of water qualities?

Nakatsuji Keiji

4 Denitrification, oxygen uptake and methanogenesis in natural and artificial tidal flats from Ago Bay, Japan: Rate measurements and regulating factors

Patel Arun B.

5 Domestic sewage impact on Black sea coastal ecosystem

Kuzminova Natalya

6 Evaluation of the impact of wet/dry deposition of nitrogen oxides and ammonia on eutrophication in Mikawa bay, Japan

Kitada Toshihiro

7 Monitoring and evaluating trophic status and eutrophication in coastal waters through a combination of in situ sampling, numerical models and satellite imagery.

Bruchon Franck

8 -

Bacq Nicolas

May, Wednesday 10th 09h00 to 12h00

9 Report card and indicators of quality in the Seine Estuary

Dauvin Jean-Claude

10 Indices on the state of environment on example of the gulf of Gdansk

Filipkowska Anna

11 Evaluating ecological quality in the north-eastern Black Sea coastal zone.

Wilson Jim

12 Biosedimentary evolution of one of the more important area for birds in the Natural Reserve of the Bay of Somme.

Meirland

13 Endangered ecosystems in Manila Bay

Pasia Dante

14 Mediterranean sea protection : recent results for an ecological evaluation of the Mediterranean coastal waters within the EU.

Casazza Gianna

15 A fish-based assessment tool for the ecological quality of the brackish Schelde estuary in Flanders (Belgium)

Breine Jan

16 A study of environmental change in Hiroshima bay using rocky shore organisms as bioindicators, 1995-2005

Imamura Kentaro

May, Wednesday 10th 14h00 to 17h20

17 Isolation of Acanthamoeba from North Sea Coastal Environments

Munson D A

18 Application of benthic microalgae for remediation of eutrophic sediments in a semi-enclosed bay

Yamamoto Tamiji

19 Posidonia oceanica: a quality element for environmental risk assessment

Buia Maria Cristina

20 Effects of ulvoid (Ulva spp.) accumulation on the structure and function of eelgrass (Zostera marina L.) bed

Sugimoto Kenji

21 Numerical ecosystem model including two types of red tide species

Hayashi Mitsuru

22 Health Examination of Enclosed Coastal Seas: The Results of Preliminary Examination Conducted in 88 Areas in Japan

Matsuda Osamu

23 Effect of tourist resorts on the water quality and biota of Poovar estuary, south west coast of India.

Premjith S.

24 Benthos conformation in inter-tidal boulder shore of Minamata Bay and mercury distribution compared with other region of western Japan.

Yasuda Yoshiaki

25 Tropical coastal organisms as qualitative indicators of mercury and organomercury for sustainable use of natural resources

Santosh Kumar Sarkar, Asokkumar Bhattacharya and Asish Kumar Chattopadhyaya

26 Sources and Sinks of Trace Metals in the Gulf of Thailand

Rattanachongkiat Saravuth

May, Thursday 11th 14h00 to 17h30

27 The spreading of tailing waste from a gold mining and its impact to the seawater in Buyat Bay, North Sulawesi, Indonesia

Prisetiahadi Kus

28 Natural & anthropogenic parameters influencing sea level rise (SLR)

Melloul A. & Collin M.

29 Impact of two semi-enclosed seas on neighboring sea

Yahya Syed Mohammad

30 Impact of tsunami : ecological restoration and coastal planning

Ghosh Santosh

31 A study on the environmental management of enclosed coastal sea, Ariake sea, Japan

Hiruma T. (Ito T.)

32 Evaluation of ecological status of hypersaline marine lagoons and coastal salt lakes for improvement their management

Rudneva Irina

33 Fish utilisation of UK managed realignments and adjacent established saltmarsh, as an indicator of habitat restoration success.

Leila Fonseca
